the word...

"Made for an increasingly demanding and fast-paced world, this astoundingly diverse compendium is alive with multifaceted realities that can be experienced in any order, allowing a great way to take a quick immediate break and be instantly transported into many and varied emotions."

--THOM NICKELS, author & poet

"The incredible diversity created by bringing together so many different styles and schools (shades of Beat, New York School, European modernism, postmodern avant-garde abound) makes Van Gogh's Ear seem more like an all-inclusive and highly definitive anthology of modern poetry than just another thrown-together journal."

--MARK TERRILL, author & poet
